

CALL FOR MANUSCRIPTS

The Catalan Journal of Environmental Law - Revista Catalana de Dret Ambiental (RCDA) – (ISSN 2014-038X) is an electronic journal co-published by Catalanian Autonomous Government and the Tarragona Centre for Environmental Law Studies (CEDAT), at the Universitat Rovira i Virgili. The RCDA takes an interdisciplinary approach covering different branches of law related to environment protection. The RCDA is a scientific publication directed to both academics (university professors and researchers) and practitioners working on the field of environmental law, including government, private operators, and non-governmental organisations for environmental protection. It is a biannual journal. The first issue has appeared in June 2010. The RCDA is a multilingual journal. In general, studies and notes will be published in the language of reception, accompanied by a summary or abstract in the original language, and also in Catalan, Spanish and English.

Manuscripts can be Studies or Notes. Studies are researches on issues related to environmental law and policy, between 20 and 40 pages. Notes are short papers, not exceeding 20 pages, on current issues on environmental law. The deadline for the submission of manuscripts are, for the number appearing in July,

Studies: 1st April, and Notes: 15th April; and for the number appearing in December,

Studies: 1st October, and Notes: 15th October

The author guidelines may be found in www.rcda.cat

All the studies and notes received will be subject to a blind peer review process, through the double referee system, before accepting their publication
